

Legion Nine Out Of Tournament

Torrance Legion Post 170's baseball team dropped out of contention in the Anaheim Tournament Thursday going down to a 5-1 defeat at the hands of Compton.

Compton's pitcher Skagstad twirled a no-hitter to spell out the loss for the locals, who finished the competition sixth in a field of 76 original entrants.

Coached by Del Nuzum, the Torrance team won four games straight—most of them hard-fought contests before dropping out.

The team is sponsored by the Legion Post and the city recreation department.

Baldwin was charged with the loss for the locals who used Veres in the fifth, Simpson in the sixth, Roy Vanderpool was the catcher.

ALL-STARS AMASS EIGHT RUNS TO CLIMAX SEASON

Girls softball came to a close Friday night with the end of the All-Star game with the K-Kids losing 8-6.

This is the annual game between the winning team and a team composed of the most valuable players from the remaining seven teams. This was an exciting climax to the season, with the lead changing hands three times.

There were two pitchers for the All-Stars, Rosie Swartz of the Hotshots and Dot Nelson of the Bruins. Between them they gave up only two hits. There appeared to be two reasons for the K-Kids' loss: they were tired after going eight innings on Wednesday, plus facing the 10 best hitters in the league.

The All-Stars were led at the plate by Judy Clements, shortstop for the Esabs, who hit a single and a double, and Bev Wilson, playing third usually for the Hotshots, who collected two hits herself. The K-Kids, coming up for the last time in the seventh inning were literally robbed of two base hits by the sensational catches by Judy Clements, who practically raced into left field to snag down the two line drives.

ALL-STAR TEAM—Arlene Horne, Duffers; Vi Lucero, Hamburgers; Joyce Bernhardt, Esabs; Judy Clements, Esabs; Bev Wilson, Hotshots; Sue Miller, Sureshots; Nancy Reynolds, Hamburgers; Linda Lane, Duffers; Anita Hamilton, Bruins; Sharon Gregory, Basebags; Dot Nelson, Bruins; Joyce Ewart, Basebags; Rosie Swartz, Hotshots.

Hahn Discusses Dodger Shift To Los Angeles

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, who has been in the lead in the campaign to bring major league baseball to Los Angeles County during the past years, today stated that he wants to assure the public that the present negotiations to bring the Brooklyn dodgers here are being conducted in accordance with sound business practices.

He pointed out that the official negotiator, H. C. McClellan, appointed by the City and County, has been authorized to work out all details in connection with the proposed transfer.

"However, I am convinced that the tentative proposal now under study and consideration will be most advantageous to the people of Los Angeles County. By comparison, Los Angeles is getting a much better deal in obtaining the Dodgers than San Francisco is for the Giants," Supervisor Hahn declared.

Supervisor Hahn pointed out that the Dodgers will be a great financial asset to Los Angeles County, and that it has been estimated that the major league club will bring in at least $25,000,000 additional income yearly in tourist trade, benefiting hotels, transportation, restaurants and all business.

"By using their own money, and owning the property on which the stadium will be built, the Dodgers will pay taxes and assessments which will return to the City and County the cost of building the access roads to the baseball field," Supervisor Hahn concluded.

Bluebirds Meet Watts Giants in Crucial Contest

Torrance Bluebirds will be out today to continue their fight for the Southern California semi-pro championship.

The Birds will meet the Watts Giants at South Park, 357 E. 51st St., in the fourth round of semi-final tournament play.

The locals need today's win and one more in order to enter the one-game playoff for the Southern California title.

Wrigley Field will be the scene of the title match.

No. American Torrance Plant Nine Takes All-League Championship

North American Aviation's Torrance plant softballers this week were hailed as the "conquering heroes" by fellow employees as they brought the aircraft company's all-league championship trophy to the Abalone Ave. plant for the third time in four years.

Torrance went through the North American softball tourney without a scare as ace pitcher and manager Jack Kirkland held three opponents to a total of only two runs and six hits.

Favored throughout the tourney to cop the title, Torrance reached the finals by winning the season-long Factory A League crown and then in successive wins defeating two other league champions.

Kirkland, in the deciding game, held a powerful opponent to only two hits as Torrance registered a 7-1 win. One of the hits off Kirkland was a homer, accounting for the sole run.

Behind Kirkland were the powerful bats of Frankie Algarme, Arnold Murllee, Norm Hodges, Bob McCune, and Jack Grimes.

Favored during the regular season, Torrance only dropped two games while winning ten.

Bob Clifford Signs With Hollywood Stars; Reports to Pirates' Farm

Clifford, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clifford, 2822 Eldorado, has been working at Northrop Aircraft during the summer. He was graduated from Torrance High last spring.

The young outfielder will report to San Jose, a Pittsburgh Pirates farm club, next spring.

GIRLS CAP SUMMER PLAY WITH K KIDS THRILLER

Probably the most exciting game of the entire summer in the Girls' Softball League was played on Wednesday night at Watteria Park, with the K Kids defeating the Hotshots, 7-4.

All the blue chips were riding on the outcome of this game between the K Kids and the Hotshots. It was just about as tight as a ball game can be, with the score all tied up 4 to 4 at the end of seven innings.

At the top of the 8th, the K Kids scored 3 runs on a single by Joan Wootton, sending home the tie-breaking run, and a double by Carol Brier, which brought home two more runs. The two pitchers, Marge Hartman of the K Kids, and Rosie Swartz of the Hotshots, each gave up 6 hits, but struck out 17 batters between them.

This win leaves the K Kids in first place in the league with 10 wins and one loss, and gives them the right to play the All Star team on Friday night.

In other games played during the week, the Esabs were pushed hard by the last place Hamburgers, but finally caught fire in the third inning and won going away, 18 to 6.

In the second half of the double header played Tuesday at McMaster Park, the underdog Basebags gave the Duffers a real battle before losing 11 to 8. At the end of the third the Basebags led 8 to 5, but then the Duffers got two big hits from Janet Huffman and Arlene Horne to bring home the go-ahead runs.

The fourth game of the week was a forfeit for the Bruins over the Sureshots.

Rehearsals will continue each evening until the opening day of college, the instructor added.

"The purpose of the pre-footbal season rehearsals," Greer indicated, "is to prepare the marching band for a series of new and different field shows." All sessions will be held in Room 17 of the Music building, he stated.

All college-age bandsmen interested in performing with the El Camino College band this semester are urged by Greer to be present at the special rehearsals. He said that a beach party will also be planned for the pre-school period.
